“An earthy, mushroomy Pinot, fairly simple, but providing plenty of fine varietal pleasure. It’s dry and oaky, with raspberry-pie filling, teriyaki beef, vanilla and spice flavors”

“Intense aromas of red and black fruit, with white pepper spice, toasty vanilla oak, and hints of violets and earthy oak. Smooth and lush on the palate, with black cherry, plum jam and red licorice flavors, over a touch of baking spice and toasty oak. Balance, lingering finish with note of cola on end. Grilled rib steak with Cajun spice rub.” - Santé Magazine, Summer Issue 2012
