

COURTNEY BENHAM WINERY
2002 CABERNET SAUVIGNON
DIAMOND MOUNTAIN DISTRICT

TECHNICAL NOTES

Varietal: 80% Cabernet Sauvignon,
20% Merlot
Brix at Harvest: 24.2°
Alcohol: 13.8%
Total Acidity: 0.63
pH: 3.69
Quantity produced: 140 cases

VINEYARD NOTES

The grapes for Courtney Benham Diamond Mountain District Cabernet Sauvignon are grown on the spectacular Diamond Mountain Vineyard, which rises to 2200 feet elevation above the Napa Valley floor. This unique mountain vineyard site provides a variety of soils, superior sun exposure and nighttime cooling; producing small, intense, full-flavored berries.

WINE NOTES

Our Diamond Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon is a tightly wound wine with a rich, concentrated structure. Enticing aromas and flavors of sumptuous black cherries and ripe plums are accented with hints of vanilla oak, which lead to a smooth, full finish.

FOOD AND WINE PAIRING

Pair our elegant Diamond Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon with your favorite hearty beef stew, rib roast or roast prime rib with peppercorns.

On-premise/restaurant: $35-60

Off-premise/retail: $15-30

MARTIN RAY WINERY • 2191 LAGUNA ROAD • SANTA ROSA, CA 95401

(707) 823-2404 • FAX (707) 829-6151 • WWW.MARTINRAYWINERY.COM